

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE
Contact: Jessica Prutzman
610-858-3867 jes@jprutzman.com

Frederick Shows Receives Good Life Insurance Associates 2018 Agent of the Year Award

Reading, PA – March 1, 2019: Frederick Shows, an independent LPL Financial Advisor at Good Life Financial Advisors in Greenville and an Agent of Good Life Insurance Associates has received the Good Life Insurance Associates 2018 Agent of the Year Award. Shows was chosen out of 128 GLIA advisors and agents for the Agent of the Year Award. He was the Top Producer for GLIA Business in 2018.

“Winning the ‘2018 GLIA Agent of the Year Award’ is a testament to our clients trust that they place in my team and I. The planning that is ongoing and crucial to the successful lives of those clients, their businesses and families is paramount. We want to humbly thank each for their continued business and every expanding new relationships that they bring to us,” said Shows.

“Fred has always been successful as a financial advisor but he has really grown since becoming more knowledgeable in the insurance space. Fred is a very coachable advisor who strives to understand as much as he can to be the best asset he can be to his clients,” said Conor Delaney, CEO and Founder of Good Life Companies.

Shows is a graduate from Southeastern Louisiana University and served honorably in the Louisiana Army National Guard. He is based in Greenville, South Carolina and provides a full range of financial services, including retirement and financial planning, individual money management, individual stocks and bonds, mutual funds, annuities and more. Fred and his wife, Jennifer, have four children and are active members of the Commerce Club of Greenville and the community.

Good Life Companies is comprised of seven entities. There is Good Life Insurance Associates a fixed insurance agency, Good Life Financial Advisors financial planning for families and individuals around the country, Good Life Advisor Systems a service organization catered toward transitioning and supporting independent financial advisors, Good Life Advisors a Registered Investment Advisor, Good Life Property & Casualty offering auto and home insurance, Good Life Fitness Institute which takes an educational approach to fitness, and Good Life Organics adding the nutritional component to overall health and wellness.

###