GOOD LIFE WELCOMES DAN CREPS

READING, PA — June 26, 2019 — Good Life announces a new partnership with Dan Creps, a Greenville, SC-based Wealth Advisor joining Good Life Financial Advisors.

"We are ecstatic to have earned the trust of Dan and to have him as part of our team," said Conor Delaney, Founder and CEO of Good Life. "In his affiliation with Good Life, Dan gets to focus on his clients' needs, while outsourcing the traditional headaches like real estate, marketing, and back-office support that would typically deter an advisor from going independent. We look forward to partnering with Dan and being a part of his success!"

"After working for three large Wall Street Firms for nearly thirty years I'm excited to be joining Good Life and LPL for the independence it will give me, and the freedom it will give my clients for their investment choices," said Dan Creps.

Dan Creps graduated from Bob Jones University in 1989 with a degree in Pastoral Studies. In 1992, after feeling the need to change focus, Dan began his career as a Financial Advisor with the desire to improve the financial lives of others. Dan's main goal is to help his clients make well-informed decisions on what types of investments are right for them. To reach Dan Creps, please call (864) 729-4040.

About Good Life

Good Life is driven to change the way in which financial products, services and advice are distributed to everyday clients in communities across the country. To stand out in an industry that has been largely commoditized, Good Life needs to be different to be great. Sometimes being different is not just about being focused on the financial services offered to clients or advisors, but it is about building an ecosystem and community that improves lives. The Good Life culture is centered around a vibrant, upbeat work environment where employees are encouraged to think freely, dress for their day, all while having a strong focus on overall financial health and physical wellness.
