The Entrepreneurs' Forum of Greater Philadelphia and The Inquirer Announce the 2019 Philadelphia100® Award Winners

Good Life Companies Ranks No. 32 on the 2019 Philadelphia100® Award List

Reading, PA October 28, 2019 – The Entrepreneurs' Forum of Greater Philadelphia and The Inquirer announced Good Life Companies is No. 32 on its 31st Philadelphia100 Awards® list. The award recognizes some of the Philadelphia region's fastest-growing privately held companies.

"We are very honored to be a recipient of such a prestigious award. As a team, the goal is to go out, be a catalyst for positive change, and if we are competing, we want to be #1," expressed Conor Delaney CEO and Founder of Good Life Companies. "That said, we are a firm that has built tools for middle American advisors building wealth for middle American clients using technology to become a lifestyle manager as well as being their financial advisor. We congratulate all recipients and commend each company for helping strengthen the Philadelphia business economy."

All companies who received the award were required to have continuous growth over a three-year cycle from 2016 to 2018. And sales in 2016 must have been for a full 12 months. Applicants are evaluated and audited by Wipfli CPAs and Consultants.

About Good Life Companies

Good Life is driven to change the way in which financial products, services and advice are distributed to everyday clients in communities across the country. To stand out in an industry that has been largely commoditized, Good Life needs to be different to be great. Sometimes being different is not just about being focused on the financial services offered to clients or advisors, but it is about building an ecosystem and community that improves lives. The Good Life culture is centered around a vibrant, upbeat work environment where employees are encouraged to think freely, dress for their day, all while having a strong focus on overall financial health and physical wellness.
