Courtnie Nein Named One of InvestmentNews' 40 Under 40

Reading, PA – June 29, 2020: InvestmentNews named Courtnie Nein as one of its 2020 40 Under 40. Based on accomplishments to date, contributions to the financial advisory industry, leadership and promise, Nein was chosen from more than 1000 nominations.

"I am very honored to be one of the recipients of such a prestigious award and to be considered by InvestmentNews and the distinguished panel of judges from more than 1000 peers is very humbling. When I started Good Life Companies, my intention was to build processes, services and technology to create a practical and affordable way to deliver financial advice to middle America via our advisors anywhere across the country. Good Life continues to be on the cutting edge in the financial services industry by innovating new services and providing new products, being a catalyst for positive change," expressed Courtnie Nein, President and Co-Founder of Good Life Companies. "That said, we are a firm that has built tools for middle American advisors building wealth for middle American clients using technology to become a lifestyle manager as well as being their financial advisor. Being selected for this award is a culmination of my accomplishments and successes," said Nein.

Today, Nein was featured along with the other 40 Under 40 notables on-line by InvestmentNews on their seventh annual list.

"Given the passion, dedication and innovative spirit that are hallmarks of the U.S. financial advice industry, it's not surprising we received more than 1000 nominations when we put out our call for this year's class of 40 Under 40s," said Frederick P. Gabriel Jr., editor of InvestmentNews. "Whittling those nominations down to just 40 honorees was tough. But, after reading our honorees' stories, I have no doubt that InvestmentNews' readers will feel as inspired and hopeful of the future of the industry as we do."
