GOOD LIFE WELCOMES PAUL CASTRO

READING, PA — August 14, 2020 — Good Life announces a new partnership with Paul Castro, a Riverside, CA-based Financial Advisor launching Pathway Wealth Management. Paul brings with him over 14 years of experience in the industry.

“Good Life proudly welcomes Paul Castro to our family of independent financial advisors,” said Caitlin Degler, Senior Vice President of Business Development at Good Life. “Paul has built a valuable business and we look forward to providing exemplary service and trusted guidance as they grow as Pathway Wealth Management.”

“I partnered with Good Life/LPL because of their financial strength, technology integration and broad platform, allowing me to truly customize my practice around each client. They brought another level of service and experience, making my transition seamless and ready to roll from day one.”

Paul’s vision is to educate and guide each individual to the solutions that fit based on their goals, plans and needs. Working with high net worth individuals, businesses and business owners and not-for-profit organizations, Paul specializes in the areas of retirement planning, group 401k, college planning, insurance planning, short-term cash management and longer-term investment management. To reach Paul Castro, please call (951) 529-3689.
