GOOD LIFE WELCOMES YTS WEALTH MANAGEMENT

READING, PA — September 8, 2020 — Good Life announces a new partnership with YTS Wealth Management, a Pittsburgh area private practice with nearly a decade of experience. Wealth managers Justin V. Tantlinger and Nicholas A. Subich lead their team of six.

“We are privileged to welcome Justin, Nick and the rest of the YTS team to Good Life,” said Caitlin Degler, Senior Vice President of Business Development at Good Life Companies. “We look forward to supporting their goal of providing for their clients’ financial futures. Their values of honesty, integrity, reliability and working as a trusted friend are exactly why we are honored to have them as part of our family of advisors.”

“Good Life and LPL Financial are able to offer us the resources and support that we need to take our practice into the future,” said Justin Tantlinger and Nick Subich.

Justin provides guidance in the areas of investments, retirement, tax, insurance, and estate planning. Justin holds the Series 7 and 66 through LPL Financial, SIE securities license, as well as the Pennsylvania Life, Accident and Health Insurance License. Justin is from the Ligonier area and graduated magna cum laude from Saint Vincent College, earning a Bachelor of Science Degree in Finance. He currently resides in Monroeville with his wife, Chelsea. To reach Justin Tantlinger, please call (724) 733-4334.

Nick provides guidance in both individual and corporate retirement strategies, investments, and financial services. Nick holds the Series 6 and 63 through LPL Financial, SIE securities license, as well as the Pennsylvania Life, Accident, and Health Insurance License. Nick is from the Johnstown area and graduated from Lock Haven University, earning a Bachelor of Science Degree in Business Administration with a concentration in Finance and Economics. To reach Nick Subich, please call (724) 733-4334.
